

Beauty is in the Eye of the Beholder

Beauty is described as something that is attractive, pretty, or pleasing to the mind and senses and stirs emotions by its suggestion or perfection.

The most beautiful song I have ever heard is:

Animals that I think are beautiful are:

The most beautiful nature scene I ever saw was:

People who I think are beautiful because of their look are:

People who I think are beautiful because of their personality are:

Other things I think are beautiful are:
